The Transit Manager reported that there are three Transit Operators on long-term leave, as well as the Administrative Assistant and Clerk of the Board. Staff expects to start four new operators in training in January. The new hires will fill a position made open by a January retirement and give us the staffing level to start the Lexington Route. Seeks also reported that he is reviewing the interview questions for the Operations Supervisor position and is working with the Human Resources Department to schedule the interviews. Currently, there are six possible candidates to interview made up of both internal and external applicants.

8. MANAGER'S REPORT ~ Presented by James Seeks

Transit Manager Seeks reported that he has been working on procuring four cutaways, three as replacement vehicles for RiverCities LIFT and one for the Lexington Connector. The Transit Manager also participated in union negotiations with the Amalgamated Transit Union, which represents the transit operators. Lastly, Seeks informed the board that RiverCities will be operating our reduced service schedule on Friday, December 24, Christmas Eve, and Friday, December 31, New Year's Eve.

9. MISCELLANEOUS

Transit Manager Seeks awarded Vice-Chair Makinster a plaque honoring his six years of service on the Cowlitz Transit Authority Board. Makinster said he enjoyed participating on this board. Chair Weber also said thank you to Makinster for his service as Vice-Chair, running meetings in Chair Weber's absence.

Transit Manager Seeks then presented McAllister with a plaque honoring his four years of service on the Cowlitz Transit Authority Board. Chair Weber stated it was a pleasure working with him, and he has a heart for the City of Kelso.

Member Alexander also shared her appreciation for McAllister and Makinster and said they would be missed. She also shared that there would be a toy drive at Tam O'Shanter Park.

Member McAllister shared a parting thought. He and Vice-Chair Makinster participated on a fares committee a few years ago. This committee started the free Annual Youth pass. McAllister said he would like the board to reconvene another fares committee to seriously discuss a fare-free transit system for Cowlitz County.

Member Wallin stated that this board works well together, and it has been a good year as they have worked through some challenging times. Wallin also praised the staff by saying that many good things come from our local agency.

10. ADJOURNMENT

With no further business to discuss, Chair Weber adjourned the meeting at 4:22 p.m.
