Educating Minds

Accomplishments

- Humanities Washington Speaker Robert Horton presented Un-American Activities: The Blacklist Era and Hollywood. Discussing The Red Scare that erupted in the 1940s allowed the House Committee on Un-American Activities to grab headlines by parading prominent Hollywood figures before the cameras. As well as, posing the question: With today's politics at a boiling point, are we living in such a period again?
- Travel author Craig Romano was here May 7th to show slides of his more recent hikes and discuss his most recent book Day Hiking Columbia River Gorge. Craig also sold and signed copies of all of his books.
- The Youth Services team (Becky, Jo, and Jakob) have been visiting Longview schools to present the Summer Reading Program.
- As part of the Seed Library program, botanist Christine Ebrahimi presented a hands-on workshop on May 25th, Rock Gardening 101. 28 people attended.
- On May 14th, the Graphic Novel Book Club met for the second time, to discuss Family Style: Memories of an American from Vietnam.

Empowering People

Accomplishments

- 10 shelving volunteers volunteered for a total of 54 hours for the month of May. We had another volunteer for Rainbow Community provide an additional 6 hours of program help.

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- We will be doing 2 volunteer orientations for the Summer Reading Program. One will be on June 12 and the other on June 15. Summer Reading Volunteers inform patrons about the SRP, help people sign up, and redeem prizes.

Enrich Lives

Accomplishments

- The Cookbook Club had 12 participants who enjoyed a variety of BBQ dishes. The group will take a break for the Summer and come back in September.

Encourage Life-long Learning

Accomplishments

- Our Chair Yoga Program took a break in May for summer reading. The participation remained small but dedicated.

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- We will consider bringing this back in Fall.

Enhance Connection

Accomplishments

- “Issues for Our Times” had a lively discussion about gun rights with 8 participants. The group is taking a break for the Summer and discussing what it might look like starting back in September.
- The Adult Book Club continues to be a great venue for all adults to come together and have discussions. Since May was Jewish Heritage Month, we read The Yiddish Policeman’s Union by Michael Chabon. This was a deeper read with many layers and consequently, there was differing opinions. Everyone had an opportunity to share their thoughts and ideas and, as always, we came away with a better understanding of the novel.
- Rainbow Community continues to hold steady with its attendance, with typically 10-13 teens coming each week.

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- The Adult book club begins Summer Reading in June, and this year the theme is adventure. We voted on Brave the Wild River by Melissa L. Sevigny. This is a true account of two women who mapped the botany of the Grand Canyon.

Internal Goals and Strategies

Recent Accomplishments

- Part-time clerk Jenny Madsen has been promoted to the Library Technician position vacated by Mark Counts’ retirement.
- Mindy Hegstad has been hired as the part-time rural library outreach clerk.

- Heather P and Becky were on the Chamber of Commerce Radio Show promoting Summer Reading: <https://soundcloud.com/kedoam/kelso-longview-chamber-show-6-5-24>
- The Friends of the Library had another successful book sale!
- Lisa promoted Project Read with Klog

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- Summer Reading starts June 17th – August 10th with pre-registration opening June 1st. The theme this year is “Adventure begins at your Library”
- We will be hosting a rose garden celebration on June 15th to celebrate June’s national rose month festivities including a raffle and light refreshments.
- Jakob got the go ahead to order materials for the $500 Tabletop RPG grant. These materials will become part of the library of things once cataloged.

Limiting Factors/Concerns

- The Library has had several incidents of vandalism on books and walls using black marker. We have been working to identify and stop the perpetrator.
- The elevator was broken for many days after a power surge in the City. We received many complaints from Patrons but there wasn’t much we could do as we were at the mercy of the elevator repair people of which there are very few in all of SW Washington / Northern Oregon. Below is a picture we posted to help celebrate when the elevator came back online:

2nd Annual Columbia River Author Festival
