Longview Public Library

January 2025

Educating Minds

Accomplishments

- Winter Reading, from Jan 1-31, had over 200 participants who read over 250,000 minutes. Finishers received a lovely tote bag with our woodland creature friends on it. Over half of the people who registered finished the challenge!
- Our puzzle competition was a resounding success! Our first-place winners were crowned for the third consecutive year! They completed a 500 piece puzzle in a record 24 minutes. Many thanks went to our participants and community partners who helped make this event a success: Emerald Haven, Dapper Dandelion, and Magpie Books!
- A new writers critique group, facilitated by Alan Rose, is happening on the third Saturday of the month at the library, the first session had quite a few people at it.

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- We are gearing up for the 5th annual LongCon on Saturday, February 22nd from 10 – 5pm. Our library mini-con is a family-friendly event that takes place throughout the library and has a gaming room, crafts for kids, and a main stage for a variety of fandom-related activities. This year's schedule includes:
10:30 Panel Discussion
11:30 Costume Contest
1:30 Ignite LongCon
3:00 Lip Sync Battle
We hope you can join us!

Limiting Factors/Concerns

- We're looking for a community member who can teach a bicycle maintenance workshop this summer, we've shared out to social media and talked with several places in town but haven't found anyone willing to offer this type of program. We will continue to reach out. If you know of anyone, please have them email Joanne.dallas@ci.longview.wa.us

Empowering People

Accomplishments

- In our partnership with the Columbia Theatre, we gave away 32 family ticket to the “rainy months” series of performances as well as 32 tickets to regular performances.
- We are busy helping community members schedule Tax Aide preparation with our partners at AARP.
- We onboarded 2 new interns from STEPS and 2 from Transition Academy, both of which serve young adults with disabilities to help them learn life skills and gain work experience.
- We had 130 hours of volunteer help for the month of January.

Enrich Lives

Accomplishments

- We celebrated the run of our American Girls Book Club with snacks and activities and had fun giving away door prizes.
- We had a great turn out for Adult Book Club where we discussed Disappearing Earth by Julia Phillips. To shake things up, we had participants write down a question, ball it up and throw it at someone to read. This produced more engagement, and we heard from members who were reluctant to speak-up previously.
- We received a lovely email from a patron about our podcast:
 - “As the 2024 Podcast Challenge on Beanstack draws to a close I just wanted to drop a note of appreciation for all the hard work that goes into the production of the podcast and community challenge. I really liked this year the addition of the seasonal book clubs into the challenge. It made me more connected to the library in general and it meant that I couldn't finish the beanstack challenge until at least October. Ha ha. Although the challenge only has 14 badges/topics throughout the challenge I ended up reading 27 books I wouldn't have necessarily otherwise read. My favorites were: I Must Betray You by Ruta Sepetys, James by Percival Everett, The Tale of Despereaux by Kate DiCamillo, and Tom Lake by Ann Patchett. I included my graphic below of all the books I read. Thanks again for all your work. I haven't heard yet but hoping this continues with a new challenge starting soon. Either way your team work deserves praise for all their hard work.”

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- Science Fiction fantasy book for Adult Book Club in February – Real Americans by Rachel Khong.
- Our Your Shelf or Mine podcast challenge for the next year will be a countdown to the library centennial by discussing books from each decade starting with the 1920s.

Encourage Life-long Learning

Accomplishments

- We partnered with Cowlitz Metaphysics to offer weekly guided meditation called Mindful Meditation. Participants meet on Mondays @ 10 AM for guided meditation, breathwork and sound healing. This program runs from Feb. 3 – March 31st.
- The winter/spring Story Time session is off to a strong start. Our first Toddler Time, on January 28, had 23 children attend!

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- The Friends of the Rose Garden are pleased to accept donations for pre-orders of new roses to be planted in the Rose Garden in the spring. View the list of roses we need and additional information at: longviewlibraryfriends.org/rose-garden
- We are planning to replant the staff garden, next to the staff parking lot, to go with the picture book “Planting a Rainbow” by Lois Ehlert. Patrons will be able to watch the garden grow through the year, and even plant along at home. We are hoping to be able to give away a number of copies of the book to patrons as a Seed Library/Youth Services initiative in the spring. This also ties in with our Summer Reading theme, “Color Our World!”

Limiting Factors/Concerns

- Our next NW Voices presenter was scheduled to be Peter Ludwin, but he fell and broke his hip so his talk will be postponed.

Enhance Connection

Accomplishments

- We're so excited to have the Mobile Library join our library, and the community was invited to come tour the vehicle on January 11th. We had over 160 people join us for the ribbon cutting and visit the mobile library throughout the day.
- We created our 2024 annual report which highlighted many statistics of the library including a:
 - 9% increase in the number of library visitors
 - 9% increase in the number of items checked out
 - 47% increase in patrons served through outreach
 - 47% increase in wifi users and so much more!View the full annual report.
- Rainbow Community continues to get consistent attendance. Participants have expressed that they're grateful for the program, especially now.

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- Regular mobile library services will start in our community in early spring.
- The Community Volunteer Fair is coming up next month on March 8th from 10-1 pm. The goal is to have Non-Profit Organizations share about community service & volunteer opportunities in Cowlitz County! Registration is free, visit our website to have non-profits sign up:
<https://www.longviewlibrary.org/802/Programs>

Internal Goals and Strategies

Recent Accomplishments

- We added new signage on the new DVD/audiobook shelves, over 35 of them! Now when the shelves are moved around the main floor, we can easily put them back in order.
- Becky Standal was selected to be a jurist for the 2026 YALSA Award for Excellence in Nonfiction. The award is given annually by the American Library Association (ALA) and Young Adult Library Services Association (YALSA) to the best nonfiction book published for young adults (ages 12-18) during a Nov. 1 – Oct. 31 publishing year. Her committee work starts February 1.

Next Steps/Coming Soon

- Our annual patron survey is out in the library until February 7th when the results will be tallied and shared with all.
- Our 100th Anniversary committee meets in early February to discuss our plans for 2025.

Limiting Factors/Concerns

- Our patrons have been very discouraged with the loss of staff and Hoopla. To help ease the disappointment of the latter, we're putting some funds toward Libby titles that would give priority checkout to our own patrons (rather patrons of the entire consortium). We are working on crafting a message about the expanded services to encourage additional usage of the Libby option.
